MEMORANDUM

DATE: January 7, 1993
TO: Sandra Pralong
Alin Teodorescu
OPEN SOCIETY FUND
FROM: Juliana Geran Pilon, Ph. D.
Director of Programs
The Americas/Asia/Europe
SUBJECT: Book donation from Houghton Mifflin

The attached just arrived - as you can see, it is a wonderful donation of nearly $1 million! I should tell you that the Houghton Mifflin Company folks that I've been dealing with have given this to us because they have fallen in love with Romania. The company is really trying to help this country, and it has been a donation from the heart. We are excited about this, naturally!!

They have estimated the cost of shipment for the entire set of books to come to $1,800 total - for some 20,000 books! That is to say, shipment to Anaconda Press in Forrestville, MD. We would therefore like to request an additional $200 for IFES for minor expenses (telephone, staff time, logistics), as well as $93 for shipping by UPS 60 copies of a textbook on Technical Report Writing which we disseminated at our Brasov seminar. This comes to a total request of $2,093.

The list of books that is attached may be a little cryptic - it was produced by the computer of the warehouse department. I hope however that it is self-explanatory: Social Psych means Social Psychology; IM refers to 'instructor's manual', SG means "study guide", and so on. Evidently the big items are the text on Technical Writing by Emerson (100) and a similar one, also very good, by Pauley (500 of the first edition plus a third edition, 1,000); a text by Gitelson on American Government (2,500); a text on State & Local Government (5,000); two volumes of a text on Western Civilization (600 each); a standard textbook on Marketing (5,000), and a very good text for teachers, on teaching (2,070). This last one was just sent to me - I think it is a very good book indeed. (I am sending you the table of contents, FYI). The other books should be in OBIE MOORE's possession - please feel free to examine them. I believe that you would have seen the table of contents for most if not all of these books.

I spoke with Mr. Octavian Costea yesterday and he is happy to ship these books, probably in two installments. (He may have already spoken with Alin already about it). OK?
